The Chamber is updating our membership list including emails addresses. We have found several old or incorrect email addresses and that means some of our members haven't been getting our newsletter. If this is the first email you have received from the Chamber in quite some time, we apologize and invite you to check out the new Chamber web site at www.oconeechambersc.com and verify that the information we have listed for you there is accurate. If there are corrections, please be sure to let the Chamber office know.
